Weekly Progress done by discussion

- This week we have learned about a cloud service ( heroku ) where we can upload our website, and everyone from anywhere can easily access to it.
- We have uploaded a mini project that we have already created few days back, this time we uploaded that website to heroku and tested it.
- Though we have got some issues related to the uploaded website but soon we will fix that issues.
- The link through which we can access to our website is <https://uploadfilesatmongo.herokuapp.com/>

Snap of our uploaded website are:

- At the other hand we are also trying to merge all the separately done mini projects together, and to result them into our minor project that is “Documents Directory”.
